ben's bells project

It is a time of exciting transitions! Over the past 16 years, with your help, we have built an organization that serves as a foundational resource for communities. People are hungry to learn to communicate and connect more kindly and therefore more effectively. Together, we're helping people learn a kindness skill-set that improves every area of their lives. This year we will hire a new Executive Director! My heart is full knowing that Ben's Bells is a strong, stable, and vital organization and that we are ready to bring on a new leader! And I am over-the-moon excited to get to focus on what I do best - teaching, speaking, and community building - in my new role as Chief Kindness Officer (CKO!). I know that our new Executive Director will lead us into the next generation of Ben's Bells with energy, inspiration, and plenty of new ideas. I can't wait for all of us to meet them! Thank you for your commitment to another generation of kindness!

Jeannette Maré
