

“Do things for people not because of who they are or what they do in return, but because of who you are.”

—Harold S. Kushner

